Monday 9th July 2018 – 7.30pm Quarter Peal

This will be Theo Millard's first QP – quite an achievement for a junior ringer.

Saturday 14th July – Celebrate Together

In the Narthex from 3pm. A service for all, especially those with learning disabilities, their support workers, families and friends, with tea afterwards.

Wednesday 18th July 2018 – Honiton Gate to Plate

Volunteers are required to help cover coffee/tea making between 1pm and 4pm. Donations of cakes and scones would also be much appreciated.

Saturday 21st July – Honiton Charter Day

Volunteer helpers for the stalls and coffee morning are needed. Bric-a-brac and Tombola prizes are required please for our stalls at Church for this event. Please speak to Lyn T if you can help in any way. Thank you.

Thursday 2nd August – Honiton Show

Honiton Mission Community will once again be running the 'Rest and Refresh' tent at the show. Volunteers and biscuit makers will be needed – so watch this space for more details of how you can help.

There is a list in the Narthex to sign up for volunteering to man the tent on the day. Please indicate the times you are able to cover.

New Kitchen

Help us raise £15,000 and fill the teapot!! After months of deliberation, the Kitchen Cabinet group produced plans which the PCC have now agreed. Now it's your turn to help by raising £15,000, which is needed to make our kitchen fit for purpose. Please put any donations in porch safe or hand into the Parish Office. Thank you.

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

READING 2 Corinthians 12: 2-10

2 I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. 2 And I know that such a person – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows – 4 was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. 5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. 6 But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, 7 even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. 8 Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, 9 but he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.’ So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. 10 Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

GOSPEL Mark 6: 1-13

1 Jesus came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. 2 On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, ‘Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?’ And they took offence at him. 4 Then Jesus said to them, ‘Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.’ 5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. 6 And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. 7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; 9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, ‘Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. 11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.’ 12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. 13 They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Post Communion

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Readings next week – Trinity 7

- Ephesians 1: 3-14
- Mark 6: 14-29
- Psalm 24

The Psalm below is printed for your convenience and use in personal devotions during the coming week.

Psalm 48

- 1 Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain,
- 2 beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.
- 3 Within its citadels God has shown himself a sure defense.
- 4 Then the kings assembled, they came on together.
- 5 As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic, they took to flight;
- 6 trembling took hold of them there, pains as of a woman in labor,
- 7 as when an east wind shatters the ships of Tarshish.
- 8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God, which God establishes forever. (Selah)
- 9 We ponder your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple.
- 10 Your name, O God, like your praise, reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with victory.
- 11 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the towns of Judah rejoice because of your judgments.
- 12 Walk about Zion, go all around it, count its towers,
- 13 consider well its ramparts; go through its citadels, that you may tell the next generation
- 14 that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will be our guide forever.
