There's still more needed for this project.

The next planned fundraiser is on 7th December – "For the love of Christmas" an evening of music and readings. Book the date.

If you would like to do something for this fund, please be bold and do it!

Thank you. Julia Beaman and the Kitchen Cabinet Group

Grant, we beseech you, merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

READING Hebrews 5: 1-10

1 Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; 3 and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. 4 And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. 5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; 6 as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.' 7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; 9 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, 10 having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL Mark 10: 35-45

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' 36 And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?'

37 And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' 38 But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' 39 They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; 40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.' 41 When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. 42 So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. 43 But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. 45 For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

Post Communion

Father of light, in whom is no change or shadow of turning, you give us every good and perfect gift and have brought us to birth by your word of truth: may we be a living sign of that kingdom where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Psalm 104: 1-10

- 1 Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honour and majesty,
- 2 wrapped in light as with a garment. You stretch out the heavens like a tent,
- 3 you set the beams of your chambers on the waters, you make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind,
- 4 you make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.
- 5 You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken.
- 6 You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.
- 7 At your rebuke they flee; at the sound of your thunder they take to flight.
- 8 They rose up to the mountains, ran down to the valleys to the place that you appointed for them.
- 9 You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.
- 10 You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills
